Macau, seamlessly connected to China and the world

THE SHINING PEARL OF ASIA AT THE HEART OF IT ALL

Macau is a UNESCO Creative City of Gastronomy, boasting a dazzling array of dining options. The Historic Centre of Macau is also on the UNESCO World Heritage List.

Macau is located in the dynamic Greater Bay Area, seamlessly connected to China and the world.

By sea, Macau is linked via ferry to Mainland China, Hong Kong and Hong Kong International Airport.

By land, Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge reduces traveling time between Hong Kong and Macau to just 40 minutes. One of the world's largest and most advanced fast rail networks connects all major Chinese cities to Zhuhai, which is right next to Macau.

By air, Macau International Airport and 3 regional international airports are within 1 hour's travel time and host direct flights to all major cities in Greater China, and over 200 cities around the world.

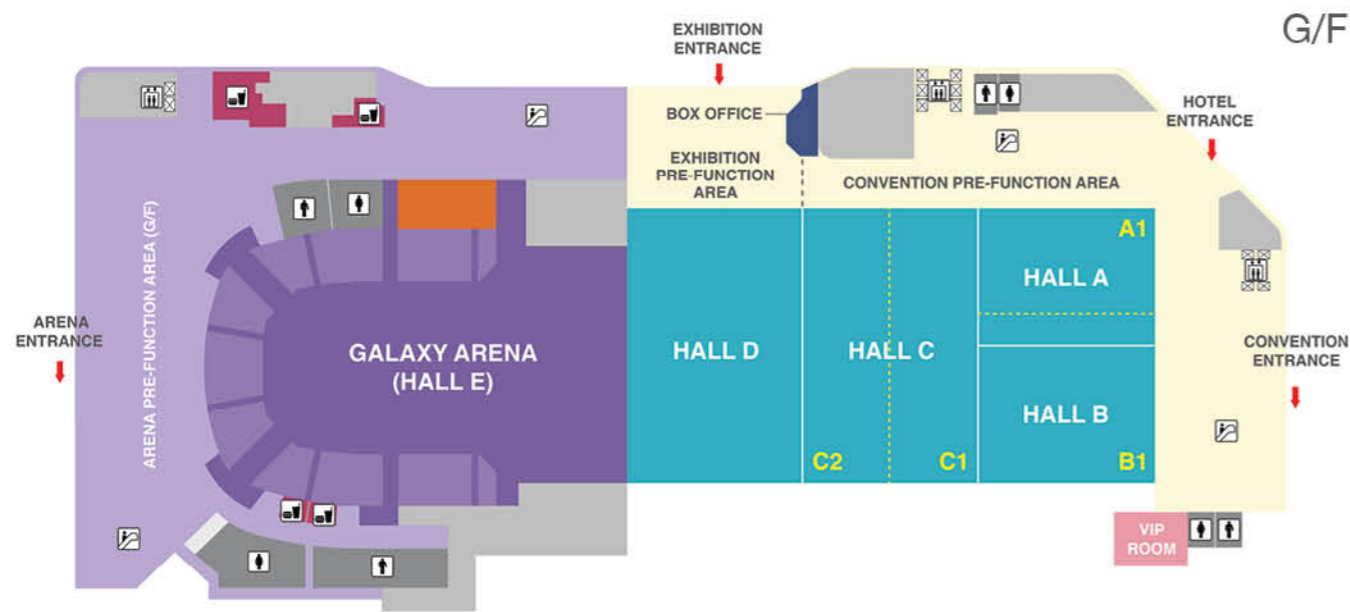

With a modern and comprehensive infrastructure network, Macau is easily one of the most accessible locations in the world.
